

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, JODHPUR
DISTANCE EDUCATION BOARD (LAW PROGRAMS)
EXAMINATIONS - NOVEMBER, 2012
LL.M. (Criminal Law, Criminology & Forensic Science)

I Semester
Criminology and Criminal Jurisprudence Assignment Topics 1. Social Disorganization Theory as propounded by Shaw and McKay and its relevance in modern penology 2. Edwin Sutherland's Contribution to Criminology 3. White Collar Crime 4. Sociology of Criminal Law Project Topics: 1. Theories of Female Criminality 2. Karl Marx's contribution to criminology 3. Set off as Reformatory approach 4. Causes of Crime
Human Rights and Criminal Justice System Assignment Topics: 1. Critically examine the approach of the Indian judiciary towards capital punishment? 2. What are the rights of rape victims? Elaborate on the right to compensation? 3. Write a comment on D.K Basu v. State of West Bengal 4. Discuss the constitution and functions of the NHRC Project Topics: 1. Doctrine of 'rarest of rare' 2. Recognition of human rights in the criminal justice system- role of judiciary 3. Rights of prisoners in India 4. Protection of refugees under Indian law
Research Methodology Assignment Topics 1. Various points to be kept in mind in writing a 'project report.' 2. Importance of and Formulation of a Hypothesis. 3. Interview as a method of Data Collection. 4. Case Study as a Research Method. Project Topics: Write Research Methodology Project proposal on any one (2010-Batch students)/ any two (2009-Batch students) of the following comprising of- (1) 3 Research Objectives (2) 3 Research Questions (3) A hypothesis (4) Propose a questionnaire comprising of 15 questions on the basis of scaling (5) Examine two books and two articles written in any Journals in relation to the topic and write summary of them in 500 words each Note:- (6) Don't write a complete project work in this Course. Topics: 1. Examination of conditions of undertrial prisoners. 2. To study the Judicial responses towards compensation to victims. 3. To examine the conditions of working of open prisons in India. 4. To examine the rights of an arrested person before trial.	