

NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITY, JODHPUR
DISTANCE EDUCATION BOARD (LAW PROGRAMS)
EXAMINATIONS -2015
(JUNE, 2015)
Master Degree in Corporate Laws
Semester II
Mergers & Acquisitions
(Course-I)

Project Topics

1. Hostile Takeover
2. Merger and Amalgamation: Legal Paradigms
3. Person Acting in Concert & SEBI Takeover Code
4. Valuation Aspects of Merger

Assignments:

1. Court is not merely a rubber stamp in sanctioning the scheme. The role of Court is inquisitorial and supervisory in sanctioning the scheme. Elucidate the statement with the help of Supreme Court Judgment.
2. Valuation and share exchange Ratio is the most entangled part of Corporate Combination. Discuss about different valuation methods in brief and their merits and demerits also.
3. What is the hostile takeover? What are the defences available to the target company. Discuss anyone in detail?
4. Corporate Combinations are also used as a measure of Tax Planning. In the light of the statement discuss the relevant provisions of I.T. Act in the light of corporate combination?

Banking & Finance
(Course-II)

Project Topics

1. International Regulation of Banking & Finance
2. Critical Analysis of Securitization
3. Risk Management in Indian Banks
4. Basle Committee Prudential Norms

Assignment Topics

1. Banking Ombudsman in India
2. Credit policy of RBI
3. Futures and options in money markets
4. Governing law of financial contract

Investment Law
(Course-III)

Project Topics

1. External Commercial Borrowings as a source of raising finance
2. Nature and Determinants of FDI in India
3. Foreign Institutional Investments and Stock Markets in India
4. Current Saving Investment Scenario in India: An overview of Budgetary Recommendations

Assignments:

1. ADR's/GDR's as a mode of Foreign Direct Investment
2. An overview of money market instruments in India
3. Securitisation: A conceptual analysis
4. Monetary Policy Instruments: Impact on Economic Fundamentals

Prof. V. Seshaiiah Shastri, Ph.D.

Note: While writing assignments and project works, the students must adhere to the guidelines provided separately. 2009 Batch students will write two 'assignments' carrying 20% weightage and 2010 Batch students will write one 'assignment' carrying 10% weightage. Both 2009 and 2010 batches will write one 'Project' carrying 30% and 20% weightage respectively.