

Journal on Governance

CALL FOR PAPERS

Special Issue on Independent Directors

The Journal on Governance is a bi-annual, refereed publication of National Law University, Jodhpur with the objective of increasing awareness and responsibility regarding good governance, incorporating idea through articles, notes and essays. The Journal seeks to invite well-researched, original, unpublished contributions for its fourth issue. This issue shall be focused on the issues and controversies related to independent directors. Although the term 'independent directors' has become the buzzword of the corporate world, the true understanding of the concept is very limited. While it was introduced as a corrective measure for the poor corporate governance situation in the country, recent controversies have highlighted the need to conduct further probe into their role, function and status.

For this special issue, we invite contributions from research scholars, professionals and academicians. Last date for submissions is December 15, 2010.

Submission Guidelines

Please note that the papers for the Journal on Governance must conform to the following requirements:

- The Article should be of 3000-5000 words, including footnotes.
- All submissions must include an abstract of not more than 300 words explaining the main idea, objective of the article and the conclusions drawn from it.
- The Article should be typed on A4 sized paper, in Times New Roman Font Type, font size 12, 1.5 line Spacing and 1- inch margins on each side. Authors should follow Harvard Blue Book Footnoting style. Footnotes should be in font size 10 and with single line spacing.
- The article must be the original work of the authors. If any form of plagiarism is found the paper shall be rejected. The relevant sources should be duly acknowledged as footnotes. The article shall be refereed by experts of repute i.e. who are active in the relevant field of research, before publication.
- Authors should provide their contact details, designation and institutional affiliation in the covering letter for the article.
- All queries and submissions are to be made on or before December 15, 2010
journal.governance@gmail.com